PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

Have you ever had to stay up late, perhaps waiting for an important call or a child to come home? You struggle to keep your eyes open but you are aching to rest. In these darkening days of November, Jesus warns us to fight that urge to give in to sleep because to slumber comes with a cost.

The canny bridesmaids are shrewd and their ability to plan ahead allows them fully to experience the presence of the bridegroom at the feast. It seems unfair to us that the distracted, disorganized and thoughtless bridesmaids miss being with the bridegroom. It is actually the wise ones who send them away and we are puzzled, wondering what Jesus could actually be warning us about.

Perhaps the bridesmaid are a metaphor: the wise ones of this world are already making time to be with God in their everyday lives, keeping the night watches like the psalmist and allowing God's love to fill their oil jars so they always experience God's presence. And the foolish ones are unprepared, distracted and unaware. They are not ready and do not realize that God, in fact, is actually waiting for them.

In this season of remembrance and preparation, can we lay aside all the distractions, keeping our lamps lit as we remain aware of God's presence in all things.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

The Commemoration of the Faithful Departed : Expressing His Love

It is only a few months since your husband or wife died, or perhaps your parents who lived with you, or maybe it was your child. You get up from the sofa in the living room to go to the kitchen, and for a split second you think you see him or her. Then you remember, "No, Mom passed away two months ago." Or you go to Grandpa and Grandma's house. Only Grandma is not there; she passed away recently. But in an unguarded moment, in the blink of an eye, with a quick glance, you think you see her there.

These are common occurrences. Certain places or events can trigger our memory in such a powerful way that the person we remember seems present. Now, some people will say, "Mom's gone." or "She's just a memory, but she isn't here any more," and do their best to move on with life. We Christians do more than that, though. Much more. For us Christians the everyday event of sensing the presence of our departed loved ones reminds us of a wonderful reality: our loved ones still live. The flashback to their presence in our lives often leads us to say a prayer for them. Perhaps we might say, "May she rest in peace, united to the Lord forever in the peace of Christ."

Why do we pray for our deceased loved ones? Why do we have this celebration today, the Commemoration of All Souls? Why do we dedicate the month of November to praying for the dead? Why do we have funeral Masses?

We do all these things because we believe in the power of prayer. We believe that our continual entreaty to God to bring our loved ones to peace will prepare them to bear the fullness of His Love in heaven.

We pray because we believe in love. We believe that true love, the love that flows from God and returns to Him, true love remains forever. We sincerely loved the members of our family, our friends and all who have died. And we still love them. This love which is looking for nothing other than to express itself is sacrificial love. It is loving as Jesus loved. We are not expecting anything in return. We just want to express our love others. We do this through prayer.

Fr. Roger

Prayers for Preparation of Sacraments

Holy living God,
You call these parents and guardians, to be the living presence of your love for their children. You entrust them with the development and nurturing Of their child's growth and spiritual formation.

Bless them now in their willingness,
to prepare their children for these Sacrament, So that they,
together with their children, may grow more deeply in faith and love. Amen.

Loving God,
Pour out your blessing Upon our beloved children, That during this time of Sacramental preparation they may grow closer to you, And come to know your special love for them. May this time of preparation be a time of blessing for our families and our community, and unite us all in your great love. Amen.

SHEPHERDS' TRUST

As members of our Catholic community, we regularly benefit from the tireless service of our priests. They have been instruments in living out a "faith in action." Called by God and ordained to care for His people, our priests serve our families, in churches, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, missions and on the streets. The Shepherds' Trust supports our priests to help them live their retirement years with dignity. The Shepherds' Trust collection this year will take place in all parishes in the Archdiocese during the weekend of November 14-15. This trust fund is a tangible way to care for those who cared for us and to give thanks for the blessings we have received through them. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

COVID-19 PANDEMIC - VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION

During the pandemic, parishioners have made essential contributions to parish life across the Archdiocese of Toronto. Without their help, most parishes would simply not be able to function.

We owe YOU our deep gratitude during these difficult times. Accordingly, we are inviting you to participate in a special recognition opportunity to thank and sustain volunteers who are working hard within our parish community.

There will be a special Mass for Volunteers on Saturday, November 21st at 9:15am. A Volunteer Recognition Certificate will be given to those whose names were submitted by their ministry coordinator.

THAT MAN IS YOU

Is an interactive men's program focused on the development of male leadership in the modern world. It combines the best research from science with the teachings of the Catholic faith and the wisdom of the saints to develop the vision of authentic men capable of transforming themselves, their families and greater society. The Vision of Man Fully Alive enables men to experience authentic freedom as sons of God. Through living the three-fold mission of abiding presence, joyful service and loving sacrifice, their hearts and homes will experience the joy that God desires. To sustain them on their spiritual journey, the men will be led directly to the three spiritual foods that Christ himself proclaims: The Eucharist, The Word of God, and The Will of God.
