PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

And the one who was seated on the throne said, "See, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this, for these words are trustworthy and true." Then he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give water as a gift from the spring of the water of life. Those who conquer will inherit these things, and I will be their God and they will be my children. But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the polluted, the murderers, the fornicators, the sorcerers, the idolaters, and all liars, their place will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

- The New Heavens and the New Earth, Revelation 21.5-8

The Church has turned to apocalyptic prophecy to help sustain herself while enduring times of suffering and trial. For those capable of reading the signs of the times, admission is due in regards to the distressing discrepancy between that which Scripture reveals as to how God commands we ought to live vs that which is unfolding before our eyes in the world around us. The blunt and candid history of the Church illustrates time periods where her members face struggle and duress. The Bride must be conformed to her Bridegroom; as he submitted himself to His Passion, the Church undergoes her own. We hold before us the consolation of the One who reigns and is forever triumphant; the mystery of evil and persecution shall be addressed in His way and time. The Churches' purification and atonement is painful, necessary, and hopefully- abundantly fruitful.

The cited passage, while offering encouragement to those enduring distress, also offers a grave and sobering warning to those who shall not inherit the kingdom. The list is comparable to that which St. Paul also references in his letter to the Corinthians. (1 Cor 6.9) Perhaps the most jarring of the sins and vices listed is the first, "the cowardly." How can a member of the Church, despite most sincerest prayer habits, penitential practices, and staying close to the sacraments of penance and Eucharist not feel as if one's resistance and push back towards an agenda rooted in nihilism and Godlessness still be woefully lacking? The unending covid menace has imposed isolation and bereft feelings of doubt and confusion upon us all. Prophetic voices teach how important it is to persevere in one's spiritual life, be well-informed in the daily bombardment of information, and then to oppose defiantly and definitively the lies and lunacy whenever they surface, wherever they lurk. Shunning timidity and cowardice, we vow to resist. How good it would feel to deliver a knock-out blow to a culture of death and lies! How much more likely victory will be gained by heroically hanging on to our Lord's promise in communion with his afflicted Church.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

In our readings this weekend an exorcist is casting out demons without the authority of Jesus. This alarmed the disciples who felt that the individual was outside their circle. "Teacher, we saw someone driving out demons in your name, and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow us."

Remember this reading follows from last week where the disciples had argued about who is the greatest. One can almost sense the self righteous outrage of the disciples- how can this person engage in this work without our permission? We are the recognized authority! Jesus scolds them and responds "Do not prevent him. There is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us"

It makes one think of whether or not we have some attitude, like the self righteousness of the disciples, which hinders God's work. Do our actions help or harm the work of the spirit?

We have to remember that God is constantly at work in the Spirit. Our job as disciples is relatively minor; we teach the words of the Gospel to affirm and build up the work God has already initiated.

When we live our discipleship for any other reason—status, security, power over others, wealth, a need for affection—we run the risk of hindering God's work just as surely as did the quarreling disciples.

God Bless

Fr. Roger

NATIONAL DAY FOR TRUTH AND RECONCILIATION

On Thursday, September 30, 2021, across the country, Canadians will be observing the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation. The ongoing journey to healing and reconciliation has a particular relevance for Catholics throughout Canada given the church's involvement in operating many residential schools and recognizing the suffering and intergenerational trauma that remains for many survivors to this day. This day provides an opportunity for all Canadians to recognize and commemorate the legacy of residential schools, and commit to working for truth and reconciliation in the relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in Canada.

All are welcome to join Cardinal Thomas Collins for a virtual prayer service on September 30, 2021 at 10:00 a.m. – you can access the prayer service through the St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica livestream at: <https://www.stmichaelscathedral.com/live/>.
