PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

The most evident mark of God's anger and the most terrible castigation He can inflict upon the world are manifested when He permits His people to fall into the hands of clerics who are priests more in name than in deed, priests who practice the cruelty of ravening wolves rather than the charity and affection of devoted shepherds. Instead of nourishing those committed to their care, they rend and devour them brutally. Instead of leading their people to God, they drag Christian souls into hell in their train. Instead of being the salt of the earth and the light of the world, they are its innocuous poison and its murky darkness...When God permits such things, it is a very positive proof that He is thoroughly angry with His people and is visiting His most dreadful anger upon them. - St. John Eudes, (1601-1680)

The humble and simple farming background of St. John Eudes, born in the Northern French city of Caen, helped fuel the saint's later zeal and devotion. The accounts of St. John Eudes life describe him trying to assist the poor, the uneducated, and women who had fell into the trap of exploitation and prostitution as a way of earning income. St. John appreciated that there was much work to be done in the reform of how priests were equipped and prepared to confront and work towards the real problems that existed in society and within the Church.

From the searing tone of the cited quote, it sounds like St. John Eudes held nothing back. His words are powerful. Do note the double edged-sword to his indictment! Bad priests are an indication of God's disfavour towards His people. Accordingly then, the punishment is made manifest by the signs of greedy, corrupt, selfish priests who in-turn are a consequence of the overall people they are chosen from. The only apparent remedy is a mutual repentance and conversion of both clergy and Catholic faithful. Failure on either parties' conscientious response exacerbates an already unsustainable, intolerable situation. The French Revolution, just a century later, and with all its accompanying carnage was the ensuing result. St. John Eudes is also known for doing much to promote devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Immaculate Heart of Mary- a true recourse when one knows the time's in which one is living are filled with looming peril.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This week the readings take on a markedly Apocalyptic tone. Jesus speaks about `...the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky.`

It leads on to wonder whether we are living in those times. The pandemic has brought about a surreal sense of unreality or an alternative reality that has supplanted our normal way of carefree living.

But it has not all been bad. There is a far greater sense of solidarity, a feeling that we are all in this together. And along with this a better realization of our interdependence. It's strange that in our pandemic isolation people now appreciate human companionship more than ever before.

Probably the greatest good is the humbling knowledge that we don't control everything. There are forces beyond us that we must respect. So whether or not we are living in the end times we make the best of what we have and hope for better.

MONTH OF ALL SOULS - REMEMBERING THE DEAD

During the month of November, we are called to pray in a particular way for those who have died. We pray for all who have died, that they may be granted the gift of eternal life. There will be a special Memorial Prayer Box placed in front of the Sanctuary during the month of November. The names of the deceased may be written on the Envelopes provided and placed in the Memorial Prayer Box. During the month of November, the deceased will be remembered at all Masses.

THE SHEPHERDS' TRUST
