PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

America, it is said, is suffering from intolerance - it is not. It is suffering from tolerance. Tolerance of right and wrong, truth and error, virtue and evil, Christ and chaos. Our country is not nearly so overrun with the bigoted as it is overrun with the broadminded. There are not one hundred people in the United States who hate The Catholic Church, but there are millions who hate what they wrongly perceive the Catholic Church to be.
-Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen (1895-1979)

In addition to this Solemnity of Christ the King, we acknowledge the celebration of Thanksgiving to the United States with these cited quotes from the highly-influential American born, Fulton Sheen. Born in Peoria, Illinois, Sheen was a gifted-student, popular professor, prolific author, a widely-acclaimed radio and television evangelist, and, most significantly, a faithful priest and Bishop; Bishop Sheen's "Life is Worth Living" series reached an audience of 30 million people – where he presented openly a robust defense and explanation of faith in Jesus Christ.

What made Bishop Sheen so appealing was his mastery of philosophy, theology, and preaching and their stunning relevancy for the modern world. He understood deeply the crisis of faith that was unfolding in contemporary America and the threat that godless Communism posed to the rest of the world.

His many works are available online. Whether browsing through his many piercing quotes, grappling with one of his books, or binging on his tv programs via YouTube, this prophetic voice, for our times, continues to speak to the many challenges before us.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

This is the Advent of all Advents to give yourself permission to actually rest.

Jesus said to the crowds:

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart;

and you will find rest for yourselves.

For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

During Advent, we prepare our hearts for the Christ-child to arrive. The run-up to the holidays can make it feel like the rest that Jesus promises is like a Christmas gift that was supposed to have free two-day shipping but got lost in the mail. There's so much to do: shopping, decorating and maybe even having difficult conversations about what a "safe" celebration looks like this year. There is a temptation to try and "just get through" this season and then look for rest in the New Year.

This Advent I challenge us to do less and find time to rest!
 God Bless

Fr. Roger
