PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

BIBLE STUDY

An In-Depth Exploration of Salvation History

The Bible Timeline® study program takes you on a guided journey through salvation history. Presenter Jeff Cavins will show you how fourteen of the Bible's narrative books tell the biblical story from beginning to end and will give you the keys to understanding the amazing story woven throughout Scripture.

In this revolutionary approach to Bible study, The Bible Timeline divides the Bible into twelve color-coded time periods that make the narrative thread easier to follow. Using a unique color-coded chart, you will learn the major people, places, and events of the Bible and discover how they all come together to reveal the remarkable story of our Faith.

The Bible Timeline will teach you how to read and understand the entire Bible and introduce you to the wonderful narrative of Scripture in a way that will transform your life.

Signup by completing the St. Marguerite d'Youville sign-up forms available in the Narthex. Simply specify in the ministry location: Bible Study.

I always try to do as much as I can do. I'm never a person that does not try enough, because I'd regret not doing enough and think I probably could have done more. I probably go too far and have to reel myself back in, which works in some things, and other things it doesn't work.

Every quarterback can throw a ball; every running back can run; every receiver is fast; but that mental toughness that you talk about translates into competitiveness.

I think the great part about what I do is that there's a scoreboard. At the end of every week, you know how you did. You know how well you prepared. You know whether you executed your game plan. There's a tangible score.

Thomas Patrick Edward Brady (Aug. 3, 1977 -)

Given the success of the 7 time Super Bowl winner over the course of his sparkling career spanning 3 decades, the first weekend of February is an apt time to reflect on TB12's remarkable achievements. From his initial scouting report from upon entering the NFL draft back in the year 2000, the assessment of the young college graduate read as such: "poor build, skinny, lacks great physical stature and strength, and gets knocked down easily." That very brutal evaluation has fueled every challenge set before him.

Even if one is not a fan of mixing professional sports with faith, the discipline and competitiveness of Tom Brady has to be regarded as a model of imitation for any person looking to make strides in the world. His legendary work ethic – a daily bedtime of 8.30 p.m., his strict nutrition focused diet, his commitment to exercise, his readiness to be coached and taught, his commitment to his team mates...it is hard not to argue with his proven and much-heralded results.

Accordingly then, who of us would not want to be as competitive and determined if facing all of life's challenges? In his own words, as obsessed as he is with winning, his real growth and maturity has come at the expense of his painful losses and disappointments. Balancing success and failure and measuring progress is something we are all, in some way, dialed in on. The easily transferable attitude and behaviour into our faith life has valuable motivational appeal. The contending with all obstacles while on a journey towards greatness, glory and triumph is at the heart of our Christian faith.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

UNPACKING THE CREED

"I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages"

Jesus Christ is the eternal son of God. He did not become the son at his incarnation. He was always the son, even before being conceived in the womb. This part of the creed establishes the Trinitarian belief of the Church which was questioned by some who thought that the second person of the trinity was only a person but not son before being born in this world. It also affirms the fatherhood of God since without the son there is no father and makes room for the internal relationship of the trinity, where the spirit proceeds from the father through the son.
