PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

Those who attack me today because I speak about politics and the health emergency, yesterday attacked me because I denounced corruption in the Church and the deviations of the Council and the reformed liturgy. The "sectorization" of competencies is an excellent tool with which the adversary decides, motu proprio [with his own hand], what his interlocutor is authorized to say, when he can say it, and what qualifications he must have in order to open his mouth. Who exactly has decided that a Bishop may not intervene in political matters? Secularists and, among Catholics, those who curiously allow ultra-progressive bishops and clergy to ramble on, who swoon if Bergoglio speaks against Trump or in favor of Trudeau, but who tear their garments if a bishop does not please the system or does not follow the narrative in a way that is unified with the aligned thinking.

- Archbishop Carlo Maria Vigano, (1941 -)

The cited words were drawn from a recent interview where the Archbishop was asked to respond to his controversial interventions into the world of Church affairs and world politics. Whether his bold statements have come to the attention of the average parishioner or not does not negate the wider and shocking impact that his words have had on the current discourse among high-ranking prelates. Archbishop Vigano comes from a classically trained Italian background in canon law, diplomacy, and ecclesial administration. While one time highly regarded for his service to the Church, the cited statement illustrates the ongoing and virulent campaign of discrediting his character. It was Archbishop Vigano, while serving as the Apostolic Nuncio (Ambassador) to the United States who noted the deep problems within the Bishops ranks as he disclosed the entrenched filth of Cardinal Theodore McCarrick and the corrupt individuals who collaborated with and were promoted by the disgraced clergymen. As we celebrate the Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul (June 29), it is reassuring to know that there are some bishops with integrity who have a reverent and holy fear of God and recognize the significance of their responsibilities and the impending time of the judgment.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Never looking Back

The readings this weekend focus on "The cost of discipleship." In the first reading the prophet Elisah is allowed to kiss his parents before joining Elijah in ministry. But in the gospel we are told "No one who puts his hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

We are told in no uncertain terms that following Jesus comes at a cost. It will require sacrifice and effort. It is probably the reason why so many turn away from the church and become lukewarm. What at first seemed bright and exciting suddenly became difficult and tiring. Worse yet are the times when God seemed distant and uncaring, we grow weary and set our sight on brighter things.

It is all an illusion of course. God is always there for us, guiding and providing for us each step of the way. He never abandons his people. His love is constant. Let us pray this week for perseverance and courage, especially when life seems burdensome. As Paul says in Galatians this weekend: "Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery."

Amen

Fr. Roger

FIRST FRIDAY ADORATION

First Friday Adoration, is a Eucharistic adoration held the first Friday of every month in the church. Adoration participants commit to specific time. These "Guardians of the Eucharist" ensure that the Blessed Sacrament is never left alone.

FIRST FRIDAY - HOLY HOUR

Please join us in this holy hour of prayers during the Eucharistic adoration on First Fridays of every month. We start with the 3 O'clock Prayer and the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00pm. Then, we continue with Prayers of Adoration, Thanksgiving, Reparation, and Intercession. We also pray the Eucharistic Rosary and the Litany of the Blessed Sacrament. We end the hour with a hymn of praise and adoration at 4:00pm. All are welcome.

THE BEAUTIFUL HANDS OF A PRIEST

We need them in life's early morning,
We need them again at its close;
We feel their warm clasp of true friendship,
We seek them while tasting life's woes.
When we come to this world we are sinful,
The greatest as well as the least.
And the hands that make us pure as angels
Are the beautiful hands of a priest.
At the altar each day we behold them,
And the hands of a king on his throne
Are not equal to them in their greatness
Their dignity stands alone.
For there in the stillness of morning
Ere the sun has emerged from the east,
There God rests between the pure fingers
Of the beautiful hands of a priest.
When we are tempted and wander
To pathways of shame and sin
'Tis the hand of a priest that will absolve us.
Not once but again and again.
And when we are taking life's partner
Other hands may prepare us a feast
But the hands that will bless and unite us,
Are the beautiful hands of a priest.
God bless them and keep them all holy,
For the Host which their fingers caress,
What can a poor sinner do better
But to praise Thee who chose thee to bless
When the death dew on our eyes are falling,
May our courage and strength be increased
To see, raised above us in blessing
The beautiful hands of a priest.
