PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

The Church, the lifeboat, should be in the sea. But when the sea gets into the lifeboat, you are in trouble. We are living in a moment of history where we are witnessing fearful things happening around the globe. Jesus cautioned us that people's hearts would fail them for fear as they saw the fruit of sin and rebellion against the one true God. I believe that we, as the Church of Jesus Christ, are about to observe a window of tremendous opportunity to reach people in an unprecedented way with the gospel of Christ and the truth of salvation.

I know that this call is God-initiated. Unless there is a grass-roots spiritual awakening, our nation, as we know it today, will cease to exist. This spiritual awakening will only come through prayer. It's time to pray.

Carter Conlon, Christian author, lay preacher, media evangelist
Born in 1953, from the small town of Noranda, central Quebec, Carter Conlon was educated at Carleton University, Ottawa and was trained as a police officer. At the age of 44, he had seen enough in the sad world of crime and law enforcement to leave his post and enter into full time ministry. The vibrancy, intensity, and conviction of his preaching got him sufficiently noticed to eventually be asked to lead a Christian outreach at Times Square Church, Manhattan. Located on the north side of the world renowned Mecca for American mass media, the positioning of Times Square Church took aim, unapologetically, at confronting the deadly and nefarious influence of the surrounding culture. Conlon's captivating presentation of the Christian mysteries even led to massive prayer rallies in the tens of thousands in Times Square.

As we listen to the Sermon on the Mount, many are the commentaries that summarize and dismiss Jesus' moral teaching on sin as impractical, unrealistic, idealistic. Indeed, given how counter-cultural and at odds Jesus' instruction is on anger and forgiveness, adultery and divorce, retaliation and love of enemies – all the criticisms are true. The commandments are beyond our human capacity to fulfill, without God's supernatural help. The Sermon on the Mount offers Christians a way out of the death trap being set for us.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Jesus tells us in the Gospel this week that He has come not to abolish but to "fulfill" the Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets. Outward observance of the Law is not enough. It is not enough that we do not murder, commit adultery, divorce, or lie.

The law of the New Covenant is a law that God writes on the heart. The heart is the seat of our motivations, the place from which our words and actions proceed. Jesus this week calls us to train our hearts, to master our passions and emotions. And Jesus demands the full obedience of our hearts. He calls us to love God with all our hearts and to do His will from the heart.

God never demands more than what we are capable of doing. That is the message of this week's First Reading. It is up to us to choose life over death, to choose the waters of eternal life over the fires of ungodliness and sin. As we do in this week's Psalm, let us pray that we grow in being better able to live His Gospel and to seek the Father with all our heart

OUR LADY OF THE CAPE

Queen of Canada is our National Madonna – her miraculous statue remains present to her children who visit her at our National Marian Shrine – Cap de la Madeleine at Trois Rivieres, Quebec. Most of the faithful even in Canada, are familiar with her apparitions in Lourdes, Fatima, Medjugorje, etc. where they may have visited but don't always know about the story of our own National Madonna and the way she chose to manifest herself to her children here nor have many visited her Shrine in Quebec.

We will have the honour of her presence here at St. Marguerite d'Youville from Friday, February 17th – Friday February 24th. Take a look at the bulletin insert for day to day detail of all the events during the week. Come and join us!
