PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

20TH ANNIVERSARY MASS

There will be a special Mass to mark the 20th Anniversary of this Parish building on Saturday, September 30th, 2023 at 5pm celebrated by Bishop Boissonneau.

All are welcome to attend!

There is one thing I know for certain, light and darkness can never share the same place at the same time. The key is knowing how to keep the lights on inside, no matter how dark it is outside.

Tim Ballard, Founder of Operation Underground Railroad

While at first glance, the author of the cited quote may not have household recognition; nonetheless, he does heroically have a connection to this week's upcoming feast of St. Michael the Archangel. Whereas the Prince of the Angels punishingly casts out the rebellious and arrogant dragon from his place in heaven, Mr. Ballard has been leading the noble and valiant crusade of ending child and human trafficking. His mission has been brought to a wider audience thanks to the cinematic work of Mr. Eduardo Verástegui and the intense portrayal of Jim Caviezel. With its resounding refrain of "God's children are not for sale!", the movie brought much needed spotlight on the horrifying details of children lured into sexual exploitation, those who consume such sordid content, and the elaborate network of those who financially benefit from such incompressible malfeasance.

Perhaps the most jarring conclusion drawn from the film was the need for more people to become aware of how signs of sexual messaging and targeting directed towards young people are prevalent among us. Even more stunning was either the ignoring or disparaging of the film by institutions and agencies that one would think would be motivated to cover something so considerably newsworthy. And so, the unexpected success of the film, coupled with the feast of the Archangels, reminds us of how many good lay people are concerned with the spiritual battle unfolding, knowing that souls are being highly contested for, and the trusted means of overcoming evil through heavenly intercession.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

We have before us this weekend the parable of the vineyard. It is actually an account of salvation history. The landowner is God. The vineyard is the kingdom. The workers hired at dawn are the Israelites, to whom He first offered His covenant. Those hired later in the day are the Gentiles, the non-Israelites, who, until the coming of Christ, were strangers to the covenants of promise (see Ephesians 2:11-13). In the Lord's great generosity, the same wages, the same blessings promised to the first-called, the Israelites, will be paid to those called last, the rest of the nations.

Like the Gentiles, many will be allowed to enter the kingdom late—after having spent most of their days idling in sin. But even these can call upon Him and find Him near, as we sing in today's Psalm. We should rejoice that God has compassion on all whom He has created. This should console us, too, especially if we have loved ones who remain far from the vineyard.

Our task is to continue laboring in His vineyard. As Paul says in today's Epistle, let us conduct ourselves worthily, struggling to bring all men and women to the praise of His name.

Fr. Roger

THAT MAN IS YOU

Saturday, September 30th at 7:15 a.m. St. Marguerite D'Youville Parish will have our 4th session of "That Man is You" with the theme "The Lamb's Supper". The session will be one and half hours with three components: fellowship hospitality, a 30-minute video and a small group discussion. Come and See! It would be great if you could attend this session as we listen to Dr. Scott Hahn, a renowned theologian from Franciscan University. He will once again share his conversion experience in discovering the meaning of the Mass for Catholics. He presents these two questions to us, "Where is God asking YOU to sacrifice yourself daily for your wife, your children, your employer and your colleagues at work?" and "How do YOU live the mystery of the Mass in daily practical ways where suffering is turned into sacrifice?" Here is a great opportunity to share your personal ideas of faith with other men. "When you seek me with all of your heart I will let You find me and I will change Your lot" Jeremiah 29:13
