PARISH MISSION

Marguerite d'Youville's belief in the guidance and loving involvement of God in her life has enabled her to become God's helping hands in the lives of others. In this same spirit, the parishioners of St. Marguerite d'Youville, nourished by the Word and Sacrament are called by God to foster a community of welcome and service. In union with Christ, we reach out through prayer and active participation within our parish, our schools, our community and beyond. We offer our gifts and talents to everyone in need and respond in faith to the challenges of our ever-changing world.

Carnival has been a mirror of the nation's soul. When the nation is healthy, Carnival is healthy. When Carnival is unhealthy, it signals all is not well with the nation. If my thesis is right, the Carnival is a mirror of the soul of society. What we now call Carnival is a hedonism that harkens back to pagan days. It is a glorification of pleasure and making pleasure your highest good. We are exporting hedonism to the rest of the Caribbean and out into the world. And what is Lent about? Reflecting on the soul. Not just the individual soul, but the collective soul. Because the collective soul does impact the individual.

*-His Grace Charles Jason Gordon, Archbishop of Port of Spain, from his 2024 book, Rekindling Our Carnival Rhythm

With a Catholic heritage stretching back to Christopher Columbus, Spanish missionaries planted roots sufficiently deep to preserve the faith even when the island of Trinidad and Tobago was forced to capitulate to the British at the start of the 19th century. The original Carnival festivities are credited with helping promote acceptance of the gospel and social communion. Traditionally, to transition liturgically from the joy of the Christmas season to the austerity of Lent, three Sundays prior to Ash Wednesday, the Church would already commence her time of penitential preparation. Referred to as Septuagesima Sunday (signifying 70 days before Easter), the custom of Carnival was meant to announce the "farewell to the flesh" discipline. Historical records describe parades and processions that happily harmonized the native islanders, emancipated Africans, and the Europeans settlers all swaying to the jubilant West Indies Calypso melodies resonating from the world-famous steel drummed "panyards."

The Archbishop's obvious and pastoral message is that like so many other parts of the Western World, a drift from the more meaningful Catholic identity has occurred, with a much more secular, corrupted and gaudy celebration have supplanted the original intent. Apart from the tragic fall away from faith in Christ, the Archbishop also makes the point that the current iteration of Carnival has even led to the social breakdown of his people with most of the festivities being reserved for the tourists and foreigners who flood the island making the celebration too expensive and exclusive for locals to participate in. Archbishop Gordon's call to conscience has merit far beyond his Caribbean home.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Jesus tells us in the Gospel this week that He has come not to abolish but to "fulfill" the Law of Moses and the teachings of the prophets. Outward observance of the Law is not enough. It is not enough that we do not murder, commit adultery, divorce, or lie.

The law of the New Covenant is a law that God writes on the heart. The heart is the seat of our motivations, the place from which our words and actions proceed. Jesus this week calls us to train our hearts, to master our passions and emotions. And Jesus demands the full obedience of our hearts. He calls us to love God with all our hearts and to do His will from the heart.

God never demands more than what we are capable of doing. That is the message of this week's First Reading. It is up to us to choose life over death, to choose the waters of eternal life over the fires of ungodliness and sin. As we do in this week's Psalm, let us pray that we grow in being better able to live His Gospel and to seek the Father with all our heart.

Fr. Roger

ASH WEDNESDAY

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent for Catholics. The ashes we receive on our forehead in the shape of a cross serve as an outward sign of our sinfulness and need for penance. The ashes also symbolize our mortality, a reminder that one day we will die and our bodies will return to dust. Hence the traditional words, "Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return".

The tradition of receiving ashes has its origins in the Old Testament, where sinners performed acts of public penance. It was Pope Urban II who in the 11th century recommended that all Catholics take part in the practice of receiving ashes on Ash Wednesday. In the 12th century it became customary that the ashes used on Ash Wednesday were made by burning the previous year's palm branches. Ash Wednesday is also a day of fasting and abstinence for Catholics.
